

WHAT A DOLLAR BUYS for Anchorage School Based Health Centers

With clinics at Begich and Clark Middle Schools and East and Bartlett High Schools, ASBHC provides quality, coordinated medical and mental health services on site to students to support their success at school and in life.

$5

Testing supplies for strep throat.

$10

Telephone interpretation when families do not speak English.

$25

Art Supplies, Journals and Snacks for a therapeutic counseling session.

$50

A book of stamps to send information to parents.

$100

Mental Health Counseling for one clinic session at school.

$200

One Comprehensive Wellness Exam for an uninsured student.

Please contact us with questions or for more information: 742-0479

